A CAMPAIGN DREAM. Air: "Oh, Susannah! I had a dram the other night
When everything was still.
Law Boss Grover struggling up
The Presidential hill.
The Solid South was on his broast,
The Mugwumps in his eye.
He saw Ben Harrison in the West
And then began to cry:

CHORUS. Oh, Ben Harrison,
Help me to some safe shore
And I'll go back to Buffalo
And stay forever more.

And in my dream I next beheld.
The man from Indiana;
Above him waved the Stars and Stripes,
At his feet the red bandana.
A host of freemen 'round him pressed'
And waved their banners high,
While from the North, the East and West
Was heard the deafening cry—сподия. Ob. Ben Harrison, Brave, loyal, true and free. We'll send you on to Washington, Our President to be.

A mighty host of soldiers rose,
From bloody battle fields,
With "Union, Freedom, Victory"
Graved on their glittering shields.
They waved she glorious Stars and Stripes
Above their ranks of blue,
They cried: "In war you stood by us,
In peace we'll stand by you."

CHORUS. Oh, Bon Harrison, Brave, loyal, true and free. We'll send you on to Washington, Our President to be.
